Beneath the banner was written, "Target: United States Military" and "Leak: Addresses of 100 US Military Personnel." The file type was a .gif file, which allowed multiple still images to be looped in one file, with a timed delay between each image being displayed.

a. The text of the first image read, in part, "O Kuffar in America, O you who worship the cross, O You crusaders that fight the Islamic State, we say to you: 'DIE IN YOUR RAGE,' die in your rage because with the grace of Allah, The Islamic State Hacking Division (ISHD) has hacked several military servers, databases and emails and with all this access we have successfully obtained personal information related to military personnel in the United States Air Force, NAVY & Army. . . . [W]e have decided to leak 100 addresses so that our brothers residing in America can deal with you.”

b. The text of the first image continued: “O Brothers in America, know that the jihad against the crusaders is not limited to the lands of the Khilafah, it is a world-wide jihad and their war is not just a war against the Islamic State, it is a war against Islam. . . . Know that it is wajib for you to kill these kuffar! and now we have made it easy for you by giving you addresses, all you need to do is take the final step, so what are you waiting for? Kill them in their own lands, behead them in their own homes, stab them to death as they walk their streets thinking that they are safe. . . .”

c. The file then looped through several dozen photographs of United States military personnel, along with their respective names, home addresses, and military branches. Several of the photographs contained pictures of the military personnel holding infants or young children.

d. The final image of the loop contained a picture of a handgun and a knife with text that read: “. . . and kill them wherever you find them . . .”

b. Defendant's link further stated that R.O "is a mummy's boy who has been trying to hide yet still lives with his father . . . and mother. . . . In between going around America to conferences boasting at how his 'claim to fame' is killing Sheikh Osama Bin Laden R.A. . . . I am posting the address to brothers & to Al Qaeda in the U.S as a number one target."
